2004 SOUTH CAROLINA AFTER SCHOOL CONFERENCE & GOVERNOR'S SUMMIT

INCREASING LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES FOR SOUTH CAROLINA'S CHILDREN

CONFERENCE SPEAKER

The Honorable Glenda A. Hatchett is the driving force behind the syndicated series Judge Hatchett. A visionary who knows how to get results, Judge Glenda A. Hatchett is renowned in the legal community for her innovative courtroom style. Best known for the revolutionary "interventions," she is widely respected for her work with today's youth, which not only sets her apart from other judges, but also establishes her as a leader in the justice system.

Nationally recognized as an authority on juvenile and social issues, Judge Hatchett launched her first book, Say What You Mean and Mean What You Say. The national best seller, provides today's parents and guardians with proven simple parenting strategies developed during her time on the juvenile court bench in Atlanta, Georgia.

Judge Hatchett works closely with community organizations and business to design a program where troubled youth would be exposed to successful executives and community leaders who would inspire them to make changes in their lives.

Judge Hatchett is the Chief presiding judge of the Fulton County Juvenile Court in Atlanta. She is the Department Head of one of the largest juvenile court systems in the nation.
